

Donna Lewis, Silent World

If I could put you on top of a cake I would ice you and keep you wrapped up in a box to be near you If I could I would
If I could touch you again with my fingers so gently
If I could feel you breathing in time next to me but the silence surrounds me flashing memories of you riding with the moon that night I never had chance to say goodbye goodbye Lost forever lost to another world gone forever but remembered in our thoughts you are I could open the heavens above I'd be with you
If I could hold you again in my arms I would tell you that I love you
