

Donna The Buffalo, Family Picture

The world is a wonderous puzzle everyone a piece and every piece fits every piece is alive making energy energy pulls the pieces together into a round ball
and there is love
it's a round ball
and there is love

The ball jumps the ball rolls
The ball lives in the moment I am told
The ball pumps and rolls with the flow
The ball laughs as it bounces

CHORUS

Sure as the sunrise it doesn't matter the shape of the hat
It all fits together in a family picture and every wall's got room for that Every piece is a part of the whole

No one piece more important than the rest
So stand up, take a number Every piece here's got someplace to go
It's a round ball
and there is love
It's a round ball
and there is love
there is love

BRIDGE

Hey there look at you you got nothin' else to do you got any bright ideas?
Tumbleweed rolling by catch the dust up in your eye saddle up the grey and ride out
