

Donnie Iris, Daddy Don't Live Here Anymore

Baby used to stay out every night
But not no more
Now me and baby always used to fight
But not anymore
Baby used to think it was alright
But not no more
Baby used to think I was a bore
She don't think that no more

She just a wants a good man
Someone to understand her
But it's too late cause

Daddy don't live here anymore
(No no no more)
Daddy don't live here anymore
(No no no more)
Daddy don't live here anymore
No more

Now baby tries to call me all the time
And when she don't get through she wonders
Friends ask if I might have changed my mind
But I just changed the number
They all say you're not that kinda guy
To be hiding from her
Now all of them admit she was a tramp
But won't you give her one more chance
She's never gonna change
Nobody's gonna rearrange her
But it's too late cause

Daddy don't live here anymore
(No no no more)
Daddy don't live here anymore
(No no no more)
Daddy don't live here anymore
No more

She's just a wants a good man
Someone to understand her
But it's too late cause

Daddy don't live here anymore
(No no no more)
Daddy don't live here anymore

(No no no more)
Daddy don't live here anymore

REPEAT
