

Donnie Iris, Holy Love

Now I can breathe
I close my eyes
I give myself to the night
I'm dead, been crucified
Resurrected and baptized
My love
We heard the angels sing
We heard the church bells ring
If I never feel again
Still I was saved by your holy love

You are divine
I was your priest
You are the demon
Possessing me
I pray to you
I kiss your mouth
Your bed's my altar
My church your house
My love
I heard the angels sing
I heard the church bells sing
Holy love
I may never feel again
But I was blessed by your holy love

I believe in
Believe in something
I believe in
Believe in you
Holy love
Holy love
I heard the angles sing
I heard the church bells ring
Holy love
I heard the angels sing
I hard the church bells ring
Holy love
I was baptized by your touch
And I was changed by your holy love
