Donnie Klang, Pick It Up

[Verse 1]

You look so hesitant babe,

And you won't let down your guard

Cuz somebody broke your heart

Im on a mission to fix that

Theres no way in hell he's coming back.

You get so sensitive when,

Its not the way it was, the way he causes a fuss

When you would show up 10 minutes late

(tick tick tock) [X2]

Like you never ever make mistakes

(tick tick tock)

[Chorus]

Baby let me hold you

Baby let me show you

I can do it better baby like he was supposed to

III make you forget him,

Forget you was with him

Cus you fell in love & amp; lost so much,

Now im here to pick you up.

(pick it up, pick it up)

Im picking up the pieces

(pick it up, pick it up)

Of you heart im healing you, you

If your ready to love again,

Then baby reach for my hand, and know that i can

(pick it up, pick it up)

And put you back together

(pick it up, pick it up,)

Ill be there through whatever

If your ready to trust again and ready

Tó take a chance

Girl you know, you know ill pick you up again.

[Verse 2]

You havent got out of your bed,

You stain your pillow case with tears

Running down your face

I know what happened in your past

All of the things you didnt have

Baby let me hold you

Baby let me show you

I can do it better baby like he was supposed to

Ill make you forget him,

Forget you was with him

Cus you fell in love & Dot so much,

Now im here to pick you up.

(pick it up, pick it up)

Im picking up the pieces

(pick it up, pick it up)

Of you heart im healing you, you

If your ready to love again,

Then baby reach for my hand, and know that i can

(pick it up, pick it up)

And put you back together

(pick it up, pick it up),

Ill be there through whatever

If your ready to trust again and ready

Tó take a chance

Girl you know, you know im gonna pick you up again.

[Bridge]

Baby you wont regret

I keep my promises

If your looking for some good love,

Girl i got that good love

You know you want that good love
Yeah
[x2]
(pick it up, pick it up)
Im picking up the pieces
(pick it up, pick it up)
Of you heart im healing you,you
If your ready to love again,
Then baby reach for my hand, and know that i can
(pick it up, pick it up)
And put you back together
(pick it up, pick it up),
Ill be there through whatever
If your ready to trust again and ready
To take a chance
Girl you know, you know ill pick you up again.
