Donnie Klang, Pretty Girls Cry

Baby please don't fall in love with me
I don't wanna be the first one
To break your heart
Oh baby please try not to care for me
Loving me is such a gamble, don't bet it all baby
Your mama told me don't be out there
Making all the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
See me coming better run from me
I make the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
Baby tell me why you'll stay with me
All I do is let you down girl, I just can't believe.
And ohhoh baby you know I'm no good,
Leave me like you should and never turn and look again
Cause all I'm gonna do is break your heart again
Your mama told me don't be out there
Making all the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
See me coming better run from me
I make the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
Girl don't you waste your time falling for me
Don't try to keep me all locked down
I'm known to get around
I don't wanna be the one to blame
The things I did to you girl I'm ashamed
So leave now, go on be free now
'cause all I'm gonna do is break your heart again
Your mama told me don't be out there
Making all the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
See me coming better run from me
I make the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
I apologize for the tears that made you cry
Please forgive me in advance
Cause you deserve a better man
So here's your chance
If you love her (if you love her)
Try to keep her (try to keep her)
There's no pressure (there's no pressure)
To the fella's (to the fella's)
If you know better (if you know better)
Than try to keep your girl from round me
Your mama told me don't be out there
Making all the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
See me coming better run from me
I make the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
Your mama told me don't be out there
Making all the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
You see me coming better run from me
I make the pretty girls cry, the pretty girls cry
Now wipe your tears baby tears baby tears
Now wipe your tears baby tears baby tears
Now wipe your tears baby tears baby tears
