

Donny Osmond, I'm Leaving It All Up To You

Im leavin it all up to you
You decide what youre gonna do
Now do you want my love
Or are we through
Thats why Im leaving it up to you
You decide what youre gonna do
Now do you want my love
Or are we through
My heart in my hand
I dont understand
Baby, what, what have I done wrong
I worship, I worship the ground that you walk on Thats why Im leavin it up to you
You decide what youre gonna do
Now do you want my love
Or are we through
