

Donots, Alright Now

Today

You spray-paint the wall with your brains
Tell everybody you call it a day
Life's a bitch and you don't want to stay
Feels good
To have a hole instead of a head
You're most alive when you're almost dead
But you'll never pull the trigger anyway

Give us a break now
Bombs away now

Alright when it's all wrong
It's alright now
I knew it all along
Alright when it's all wrong
It's alright now
It's alright now

You say
You like the taste of the smoking gun
The candy barrel, it burns your tongue
Give us a break and do just what you say
Burn out (hey!),
You'd rather burn out than fade away (okay!)
But it ain't gonna happen today
Cause you'll never pull the trigger anyway

Give us a break now,
Yeah

Alright when it's all wrong
It's alright now
I knew it all along
Alright when it's all wrong
It's alright now
It's all wrong now
I knew it all along

Go away now
Whoohooo, whoohooo, whoohooo
Go away now
Whoohooo, whoohooo, whoohooo

Give us a break now
And go away now

It's alright when it's wrong
It's alright now
Haha, you know I knew it all along
It's alright now (You are)
Alright when it's all wrong
It's alright now
It's all wrong now
It's alright now
It's all wrong now (You are)
Alright when it's all wrong
It's alright now
It's all wrong now
Farewell and so long (farewell, so long!)
Alright when it's all wrong
It's all wrong now,
It's all wrong now, yeah
