

Donots, Cough It Up

I'm burning
You stare into a wall
I'm waiting
You got no excuses at all
Don't make up
Another honest lie
You can't fool me
You do what you do all the time,
Hey - hey
Do what you do every time, yeah

Don't just sit and wait
Choking on razorblades
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up today
What's so hard to say?
It can't be too late
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up

Turn your head
And confess you're wrong
To kill that
Iron taste on your tongue
You're stuck-up
Don't you roll your eyes
I know you
You do what you do all the time,
Hey - hey
Do what you do every time, yeah
You're bleeding

Don't just sit and wait
Choking on razorblades
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up today
What's so hard to say?
It can't be too late
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up now
So tell me, come tell me now
Tell me, yeah tell me
Don't just sit and wait
Choking on razorblades
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up, okay?

Turn your head
Turn your head
Yeah
Yeah

Don't just sit and wait
Choking down razorblades
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up, yeah
What's so hard to say?
I swear it's not too late
Cough it up, cough it up, cough it up now
So tell me, won't you tell me now?
Tell me, please tell me
Cough it up, spit it out, let it go, yeah

Cough it up, cough it up,
Oh!
