

Donots, Friends (Fucked)

Some say I am skin-deep
Some say I ain't sincere
But believe me I'll always tell you what you want to hear

But I never told you
No, I never told you
How I fuck my friends

I've got promises to break
And friendships left to kill
Don't kid yourself
A middlefinger pays the bill

And I never told you
I fucked 'em all and I fucked 'em raw
