

Donots, New Hope For The Dead

Calling
The fallen
It's a brand new morning
For the dearly departed
The stone cold hearted

Calling
The undead
Don't call it a comeback
From six feet under
Forever we shall wonder

Stop pretending
Don't wait for the ending
We're taking you back
Taking you back
To the life you never led

Get up, all you broken backs
Don't mind the bullet in your head
New hope for you
New hope for the dead
We came to take you back
To the life you never ever led
New hope for you
New hope for the dead

Calling
The undead
Don't call it a comeback
From six feet under
Forever we shall wonder

Stop pretending
Don't wait for the ending
We're taking you back
Taking you back
A new hope for the dead

Get up, all you broken backs
Don't mind the bullet in your head
New hope for you
New hope for the dead
We came to take you back
To the life you never ever led
New hope for you
New hope for the dead

Get up, all you broken backs
Don't mind the bullet in your head
New hope for you
New hope for the dead
We came to take you back
To the life you never ever led
New hope for you
New hope for the dead

Wake up, all you dead!

New hope for the dead
