

Donots, Nothing Left

And this is not the Way a Conversation works, no!
Yeah, I just can't believe you've lost it!
A couple of years ago it all seemed to make more sense
But today every argument's wasted

And every word is one too much - what happened to you?
Yeah, what about your good ideas ?
I thought you had the masterplan to save the world, yeah
But it seems there's no more tension here

And i wonder who you want to be
The fire fades away
And i know theres nothing left to say
I miss my friend from yesterday!

And i want to know when you've become so superficial
Yeah, so much for your revolution!
And your raised fist,it turned into a common handshake
Tell me where is the man with a mission?

And i wonder who you want to be
The fire fades away
I miss my friend from yesterday!

Friend from yesterday
My friend from yesterday
Friend from yesterday
My friend
where are you?

And i wonder who you want to be
The fire fades away
I miss my friend from yesterday!

Friend from yesterday
My friend from yesterday
Friend from yesterday
My friend from yesterday
