

Donots, Your Way Home

I wake up
I scream you to sleep
I'm on your hands
And i'm in your dreams

Don't tell, don't tell no one
Nowhere for you to run
Don't tell, don't tell no one
Don't tell

Take the next train
Or the ambulance
Take the downers
Or the shaking hands
On your way home

I'm everywhere
You'll never be alone
I pull the strings
And I know your way home

Don't tell, don't tell no one
Don't tell

Take the next train
Or the ambulance
Take the downers
Or the shaking hands, yeah
You'll run away, i'll start to dance
I'll be with you and take the Next train
Or the ambulance
On your way home

I won't let go
On your way home

Don't tell, don't tell no one
Nowhere for you to run
Don't tell, don't tell no one
Don't tell

Next train
Or the ambulance
Take the diamonds
From the shaking hands, yeah
You'll run away, i'll start to dance
I'll be with you and take the
Next train
Or the ambulance

Don't tell, don't tell, don't tell, don't tell
Whoo-hooo, yeah, don't tell
Whoo-hooo, yeah, don't tell no one
