

Doomsday Refreshment Committee, Here And Now

Not too hard to see through you
And all the stupid shit that you do
All the fucking games that you play
Won't you fucking go away

Nothing but a piece of shit
Now I'm fucking done with it
It's my turn to spit you out
Here and now

The shit you're saying Don't give a fuck about
The games you're playing I got it figured out
Well now you're paying You lose without a doubt
Cause this is where it ends
Here and now

Manipulation at its best
Glad I fucking failed the test
Let me flatter you a bit
On your knees and fucking suck it

Spit on me I spit on you
For all the shit you put me through
Shove it straight up in your face
Maggot to the human race

There's no more playing
I'm fucking sick of you
Hear what I'm saying
And what I'm gonna do
No more chances
No more lies
Choke on it, choke on it
Why won't you fucking die

The shit you're saying Don't give a fuck about
The games you're playing I got it figured out
Well now you're paying You lose without a doubt
Cause this is where it ends
Here and now
