

Doomshine, Shine On Sad Angel

red clouds strike the oceans, awaiting the dawn decay in slow motion, the ultimate storm forsaken, abandoned, so lost and forlorn the fading horizon devours the sun hide your tears these days shine on sad angel, shine on spread your wings and pray for saving grace, oh pray the deserts catch fire, God whispers "...no fate..." the flames, burning higher, they open the gates leave the shores of pain, leave the misery and we pray, oh, we pray soundless we will fly far beyond the skies as we die...as we die...

stumm im schattenreich die fluegel schlagen weich die sehnsucht der vision mein traum, nur illusion verrat am eig'nen leib fuer uns're ewigkeit

shine on sad angel, shine my angel of all light, shine on soundless we will fly soundless we will die yes, we die, we die, we die, we die...
