

Dopamine, Destroy Something Beautiful

Stay away tonight,
Shut your eyes and don't even listen,
The bruise you left around my heart, is another wasted token,
If fiction is real then pain is art,
I will not be cut open.

...Will not be broken

This photograph is facing down,
I kept it to remind me,
This year has flown and it's been fun,
Look around and you will find me,
I can't stand aside and watch you open, these wounds again,
The air I'm breathing in is my own.

Woah

Hide your face tonight,
It's better now it's battered and broken,
Your shards of love rip through my heart, the rhythm beats unbroken,
If silence keeps us both apart, the words are best unspoken,

...Will not be broken

This photograph is facing down,
I kept it to remind me,
This year has flown and it's been fun,
Look around and you will find me,
I can't stand aside and watch you open, these wounds again,
The air I'm breathing in is my own.

Woah

I can't stand aside and watch you open, these wounds again,
The air I'm breathing in is my own.

Woah (x9)
