

Dopamine, The Colour Of Comfort

""verse 1""

You've got a reaction,
Your skin swells, your words feel my doubt.
This Fire between us... is burning, and you can't put it out
You've got a reaction, you fear this, but need it somehow.
This situation is haunting adn you can't block it out

Do you see their hate in your reflection?

""Chorus""

To be yourself.
is to know where it all went wrong
To be yourself.
is to know where it all went wrong for you

""verse 2""

You've got a reaction,
and feels like i've been here before,
these ghosts and echoes are spaces and u can't fill the void
You've got a reaction,
Your skin swells, your words kill my doubt.
This Fire between us... is burning, the colour of comfort

Do you see their hate in your reflection?

""Chorus""

To be yourself.
is to know where it all went wrong
To be yourself.
is to know where it all went wrong for you

""bridge""

""Chorus""

To be yourself.
is to know where it all went wrong
To be yourself.
is to know where it all went wrong for you (x3)
