

Dopamine, The Rating Game

I still hate you despite those who rate you to help with my situation
I needed a voice, had no choice, security is protection
Who will take you all the way, everybody asks
Defended you but now i'm offended by you Are you happy now?

Wish i was like you, you think you've the right to ruin a reputation
There's nothing to gain, who will remain in anticipation
I'm so sick of wasting all my time
I used to defend you but now i'll defend myself
Won't you rate me

Find my way out of this hell
