

Dope, Another Day Goes By

Another day goes by.
And I don't understand or know the reasons why.
I'm looking for a change in life,
But another day goes by.

Here we go again.

It's today.
I wish it was tomorrow though I think I'd say
You know I think it feels just like yesterday.
So lately I've been looking for a change,
But the more things change,
The more they seem to stay the same.
Here we go again.

Another day goes by.
And I don't understand or know the reasons why.
I'm looking for a change in life,
But another day goes by. Here we go again.

It's a new day.
It's almost like tomorrow never came.
Same old thing, same old game, different name.
And everyday I sing the same old song.
And today I don't feel like waking up,
But the show must go on and on and on.

Another day goes by.
And I don't understand and I don't pretend to try.
I wanna change my life,
But another day goes by.

Just when I get it right, another day goes by.
Here we go again.

So many days gone by.
I still don't understand, but now I realize
I'm gonna change my life, that's right
While the days go by.
I'm gonna change my life, that's right
While the days go by.
I wanna change my life,
But another day goes by.
