Your own gate, your own way
For your network, for you own space.
Your own gate, your own way
For your pleasure, to smash your chains.
Yeahh beating in my head.
Yeahh beating in your head.
Yeahh probing the wire-frame.
Yeahh feeling the same pain.
My own game, my own way
To feed secret desires of hate.
My own game, my own way
To get close to death without real pain.
