

Dope stars inc, Critical World

Television always rule
Ordinary people view.
Calibrating what we see.
Telling strictly what we need.
Glaciers slowly melting down.
Thunders razing to the ground
And the statesmen just stand watching
Till we get to the end.
It's a critical world yeah
And everybody knows
It's a critical world yeah
But none wants to say
It's a critical world yeah
And everybody knows
It's a critical world
Running to the end yeahhhh!
Information always rule.
Automatic people mood.
Telling stories to mislead.
Satisfying the public needs.
Territories slowly drown
Cause of natural crackdown
And the statesmen just stand watching
Till we get to the end.
