

Dope stars inc, Self Destructive Corp.

There is no turning point for my obsession
you're gone I'm lost What I've been looking for?
I've lost all the things I've fought (for) There's a sinful ghost inside the force
that tells me: Hardcore!!
Reload your gun:
Forget what you were asking for !
I'll sacrifice my soul.
So I sell it now and I will never get it back I can feel the whole rapture growing and my blood starts to run fast
I will dance till coma, fuck yeah!
Salvation, Damnation
I'm going down, I'm just a Whore and baby don't ask me why I've just sold my soul.
There's brand new host so full of force that yells me: Hardcore!! you have just become and got what you were asking for But you have lost your soul but you should be proud cause you will never lose again I can feel your power flowing and your blood starts to burn fast
You will dance till coma, fuck yeah
