There is no turning point for my obsession youre gone Im lost What live been looking for? Ive lost all the things live fought (for) There's a sinful ghost inside the force that tell's me: Hardcore!! Reload your gun: Forget what you were asking for ! Ill sacrifice my soul. So I sell it now and I will never get it back I can feel the whole rapture growing and my blood starts to run fast I will dance till coma, fuck yeah! Salvation, Damnation I'm going down, I'm just a Whore and baby don't ask me why I've just sold my soul. Theres brand new host so full of force that yells me: Hardcore!! you have just become and got what you were asking for But you have lost your soul but you should be proud cause you will never lose again I can feel your power flowing and your blood starts to burn fast You will dance till coma, fuck yeah
