Doris Day, Everybody Loves A Lover

A GUY IS A GUY

- words and music by Oscar Brand

- adapted from the naughty World War II soldiers' song " A Gob Is A Slob". Brand cleaned up the lyrics. " A Gob Is A Slob" was based on the 1719 British song " I Went To the Alehouse (A Knave Is A Knave)"

- lyrics as recorded by Doris Day in 1951

I walked down the street like a good girl should

He followed me down the street like I knew he would

Because a guy is a guy wherever he may be

So listen and I'll tell you what this fella did to me

I walked to my house like a good girl should

He followed me to my house like I knew he would

Because a guy is a guy wherever he may be

So listen while I tell you what this fella did to me

I never saw the boy before

So nothin' could be sillier

At closer range his face was strange

But his manner was familiar

So I walked up the stairs like a good girl should

He followed me up the stairs like I knew he would

Because a guy is a guy wherever he may be

So listen and I'll tell you what this fella did to me

I stepped to my door like a good girl should

He stopped at my door like I knew he would

Because a guy is a guy wherever he may be

So listen while I tell you what this fella did to me

He asked me for a good-night kiss

I said, "It's still good day"

I would have told him more except

His lips got in the way

So I talked to my ma like a good girl should

And Ma talked to Pa like I knew she would

And they all agreed on a married life for me

The guy is my guy wherever he may be

So I walked down the aisle like a good girl should

He followed me down the aisle like I knew he would

Because a guy is a guy wherever he may be

And now you've heard the story of what someone did to me

And that's what he did to me
