

Doro, Alles Ist Gut

All I Want

You turned my world around a long time ago I just can't take no more, got to let you know now I'm burning with fire passion burnt along with desire and I'm standing here waiting for the night you belong to me

I'm burning up for you, so deep inside my soul

All I want is your love

it's the stuff

where dreams come from

take me there with your magic touch

can't get enough

I'm caught inside a web of mystery holding on to what I think I need and I'm lost here without you

I know I'm a fool to allow you and I wonder when it was that I said you can't feel good

I'm burning up for you, now I might lose control

Repeat chorus

I'm burning up for you, you're all that I need the heat that I want is what I breathe

Repeat chorus
