

Doro Pesch, I'll Make It On My Own

You look at me
Filled with sadness in your eyes
But this should come as no surprise
It's what I have to do

Was never right
'Cause someone else belongs to you
I'll say good-bye
It's what I have to do

Yeah my heart may break
That's the only chance for me to take
And if tears should fall
They will wash away
And hurt me no more
I'll make it on my own

Don't search for me
Don't try to call
Don't try to take me back
It's time I move on

I'll be all right
Yeah I will be strong
I guess we could've run away
But I'm better off alone

Yeah my heart may break
It's the only chance for me to take
And if tears should fall
They will wash away
And hurt me no more
I'll make it on my own
