

Doro Pesch, You Gonna Break My Heart

Free as the breeze
You do as you please
And it's driving me crazy

But no, I don't mind
Somehow you're my kind
You intrigue and amaze me

I should turn around
Walk out right now
But I guess I'll stay

Cause there's something about you
I just can't say no to
But that's okay

You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart again
What is it that you've got
Oh, I can't get enough
Come on - break my heart again

Last time I saw you
You swore that you love me
And you'd never leave
Now here you are
Saying you will
Make it up to me

What should I do
Call me a fool
Either way I go

Yeah I'm out of my mind
But that's all right
I want you so

You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart again
What is it that you've got
Oh I can't get enough
Come on break my heart again

Break my heart in the morning, break my heart in the nighttime
Break my heart any time you want
