

Doro & Warlock, Angels With Dirty Faces

Free as the breeze
You do as you please
And it's driving me crazy
But no, I don't mind
Somehow you're my kind
You intrigue and amaze me
I should turn around
Walk out right now
But I guess I'll stay
'Cause there's something about you
I just can't say no to
But - that's okay
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart again
What is it that you've got
Oh I can't get enough
Come on - break my heart again
Last time I saw you
You swore that you loved me
And you'd never leave
And now here you are
Saying you will
Make it up to me
Oh what should I do
Call me a fool
Either way I go
Yeah I'm out of my mind
But that's all right
I want you so
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart again
What is it that you've got
Oh I can't get enough
Come on - break my heart again
Break my heart - in the morning
Break my heart - in the night time
Break my heart - any time you want
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart again
What is it that you've got
Oh no, I can't get enough
Come on - break my heart again
You gonna break my heart
You gonna break my heart
