

Doro & Warlock, Bis Auf's Blut

Beyond the trees
Natures reign is ending Children unattended
fleeze
Beyond the trees
The world is so much colder dreams turn into soldiers and bleed
The earth is turning Kings are burning
The missions down
to the ground
as time passes
cold bastards
frighten me
beyond the trees
Beyond the trees
Beauty's lost in boundary
insanity surrounds me
here
Beyond the trees
If there is disaster Is there something after for me
The earth is turning
Kings are burning
The missions down
to the ground
as time passes
cold bastards
frighten me
beyond the trees
