

Doro, Wild Heart

You call me a wayward child
Meant to be free, born to be wild
That the way it been ill now

Who do you see before you now
A friend, a lover, an angel or witch
Who you call your love, if you wish

If I was lyin?would I stand here
Like I am naked would I dare

(Chorus)
With all the power of my wild heart
I would break down the walls
That would keep us apart
With all the passion that in my blood
Sacrifice everything that I got
Just take me, don break me
Just blame it on my wild heart

I building my self-defense
My faith and trust
Not my innocence
And no revenge

You can forever be free
Or youe forever with me

(Chorus)
With all the power of my wild heart
I would break down the walls
That would keep us apart
With all the passion that in my blood
Sacrifice everything that I got
Just take me, don break me
Just blame it on my wild heart

With all the power of my wild heart
I would break down the walls
That would keep us apart
With all the passion that in my blood
Sacrifice everything
With all the power of my wild heart
I would break down the walls
That would keep us apart
With all the passion that in my blood
Sacrifice everything I got
Just take me, don break me
Just blame it on my wild heart
