

Dottie West, How Many Lifetimes Will It Take

How many times does your heart break how many tears do you cry
How long does it take to forget a love that just won't die
How many nights are you lonesome how many days are you blue
How many lifetimes will it take me oh to ever get over you
I've tried everything from wine to someone new
But nothing or no one can take the place of you
How many lifetimes will it take me oh to ever get over you
How many lifetimes will it take me oh to ever get over you
