

Dottie West, I'm Your Country Girl

You say you found it easy pleasin' your country girl
Her simple way of livin's brought real love to your world
A home cook meals her frensh cafe a night with you her Braodway play
And it really makes me happy knowin' I'm your country girl
You tell her she's a pleasure and the treasure in your arms
You love her warm and tender unsophisticated charms
There's no diamonds in her wedding ring wear your name's her claim to fame
And it really makes me happy knowin' I'm your country girl

[strings]

They say you have your choise of girls why picked a girl like me
Yet you took me out to places for all your friends to see
You held my hand and called me dear your nights have always been sincere
And it really makes me happy knowin' I'm your country girl
Yes it really makes me happy knowin' I'm your country girl
