

Dottie West, Left Over Feelings

Slowly very slowly you're fading away and little by little I'm forgetting each day
So if I cry when I see you don't think I'm still your fool
It's just a left over feelings that I have for you
You know it takes quite a while to forget your whole world
Especially when the whole world was you
Oh but time has been kind to this heart of mine and your mem'ries are almost blue
So don't think for a minute that I'll come back to you
Cause it's over and it's done our love affair is through
So if I cry when I see you don't think I'm still your fool
It's just the left over feelings that I have for you
