

Dottie West, Who Put The Leaving In Your Eyes

There you are standing at the window again
I know there's something tuggin' at your soul
You look like could run a hole in the wind you're burning up with desire to go
Your touch has the hands of the cold north wind I know it's all over but goodbye
To know you don't have the strenght to leave alone
So who put the leaving in your eyes
Who planted this satisfaction in your mind who gave you the strenght to say goodbye
Who put the restless feeling in your soul who put the leaving in your eyes

For so long we've been headed down a oneway street
We've both lost all desire to try
But I know you don't have the strenght to leave alone
So who put the leaving in your eyes
Who planted this satisfaction...
I see the leaving in your eyes who put the leaving in your eyes
Baby who put the leaving in your eyes
