

Double You, We All Need Love

We all need love

I swear it's true all that children me and you

I was just alone and mad with my suitcase in my hand part of a travelling band on the road (well we are knowing ..) and a motorgirl ladylike till regret it oh

We all need love I swear it's true

all that children me and you

We all need love I swear it's true

By my brother jump your head sister stand up stand by your man a lover know that you understand you really need him (I really needed you yes I do) And sun will shine on you if your love still billow of you I love some pressure get my back don't crave feel away now oh

We all need love I swear it's true

all that children me and you

We all need love I swear it's true

There's a way that thing enlight to meet you in another round so you better not waste it there's no crumple cause in life are you so reach out (reach out) take a little love I swear it's true
all that children me and you
We all need love I swear it's true
all that children me and you

We all need love I swear it's true

all that children me and you

We all need love I swear it's true

g flowing down someone left the cake out in the rain and I don't think that I
