

Doug Supernaw, You Still Got Me

I just called to say hello, I hope everything's alright Me, I'm doing fine, but I still can't sleep at night. I finally had a good day just last week. At least the best one since you've gone. But it kills me when I hear "When's Mamma coming home?"

Chorus:

And I know that there are some things. You fill the you've been missing.
I tried to be your Superman I've done all I can. Still you feel the need to spread your wings but darling if your listening. When the world ain't all you thought it would be. You still got me.

I live every day a lie and I tell the kids that it's alright. And I see a lot of you in them when I tuck'em in at night. I try hard not to be too weak for one of us must be strong. And it kills me when I'm there lying all alone

(Chorus)

You still got me
