

Dover, Downtown

DOWNTOWN

Clean your bedroom come on!
so we can find your soul anybody please call!
it is time to go move it
I need your soul

How hard is it?
come on!
you don't use it at all
anybody please call!
it is time to go downtown
and kill you toes on the dancefloor

I need your soul!

I'm a restless sordid diva
where I'm sending you
no you won't need it
you better take your coat we'll cross the river
don't forget that I'm the leader
