

Dover Drive, One More Lonely Night

all alone, its nothing new not to me, but maybe to you it would be. maybe its true but you never had it bad, not this bad im so blue without you you're gone but I wont sleep until I see you again but for now, you'r machine will keep me company please come home, but not too close you'r eyes and sleep, ill watch you in my dreams ill watch you deam of better things than me

tell me, do you ever feel the same? am I the only one that feels this way?

another lonely night gone by, I lay in bed and watch you fly away from me, away from me, away form me (i lay in bed and watch you fly)
