

Dover, The Morning After

THE MORNING AFTER

Now he's gone, now he's lone, I'm lost again
Now he's left, now he's left, I cannot breathe
Hey! can you save me, save me?
cause I'm lost, we're losing seconds

I saw the stars cry slowly when you were gone all these years of missing and now they're bleeding,

Now he's gone, now he's lone, I'm lost again
Hey! can you save me, save me?
cause I'm lost, we're losing seconds

I saw the stars cry slowly when you were gone all these years of missing and now they're bleeding, they're bleeding
