

Dover, The Rain Of Times

RAIN OF THE TIMES

Wait until the light comes

And I forgot how to sleep And I forgot how to dream rest my dear, my dear
And I forgot how to get it And I forgot how they smell rest my dear, rest my dear

Do you remember when I told you I wouldn't change a word that I said if you don't mind I'm gonna break you another rain, another rain of the times

Wait until the lights comes
