

Down Below, Farewell

Our hopes were a little too high for us
Our dreams, too close to reality
And their screams, not loud enough for us
Enjoyed our lives and now it's time to pay the price

Wherever you are, whatever you do
I wish you now better luck than in the past
Now word of farewell and no word was spoken
Now I am broken 'cause you were gone so fast

Ourselves, so far away but so close to us
Our lifelines were drifting away...
Were drifting away from us

And I try
I try to smile
But I know I'll never be the same again
And I try
I try to smile
But I know I'll never be the same again
The same again

No word of farewell
And no word was spoken,
Now I am broken
No word of farewell
And no word was spoken
Now I am broken
'cause you were gone so fast!

So fast...
