Down Below, Private Soul Security

I'll always stand behind the scenes
I'll see your tears and hear your screams
And I'll be waiting for you... waiting
Waiting patiently
I am the one behind the wheel
But I'll just turn it if you need it
In your dreams I am the melody
I'm your private soul security

You don't need to call my name, I will hear you You don't need to search for me, I'll find you You don't need to ride a dead horse, leave it If you don't believe I'll believe in you I'll believe in you

Every mistake that you have made
Every sorrow you will feel
I can't make it undone
But I... I'll make it unreal
I'll always stand behind the scenes
I'll see your tears, I'll hear your screams
In this song I am the melody
I'm your private soul security
