

Down By Law, Break The Walls

moved by a movie medium is the message now you're saying do the right thing but then you turn around you turn around and do it wrong
you gotta break the walls
not build them up
break the walls
break the walls
you've gotta break the walls you're taking it way too far now racists come in all shapes and colors too I'm so sick of all the bullshit I'm sick of louis farrakhan I'm sick of jesse helms
taking it way too fast don't blame me or my friends for the sins of the past you want to make me abandon you
but I don't want to
but I don't want to
