

Down in the Dumps, 95

the sides of these highways are filled with our mind's ease wasted dollars, hard-earned and hardly saved do you sleep well at night? your so high on power, well I'm not so high on life. and we're hardly saved from this wasted day, and we're hardly saved from these bigots' ways here it is I coughed it up, let us be on our way it's a long drive home today. so ave your speech leave us alone it's a long drive home it's a long, sober drive home.
