

Down To Earth Approach, Living Rooms

I leave behind hard days
I go where I'm needed always
Under roofs and living rooms and chairs
They come where they're needed
For looking in
Here's to moving on
Under roofs and living rooms
I pass the time we made
I'll walk where I'm going instead
A stack of cards on a pillowcase remains
They come where they're needed
Alone
Do you regret you're all alone?
