

Downhere, Breaking Me Down

Break the balance down
That's no way to go about it
Beautiful the sound
I heard those shackles hit the ground
You got me drowning in Your ocean

Chorus
Love's breaking me down
Like waves to stone, over and over
Your love's breaking new ground
Changing my every way

Tear these towers down
And all that I built for myself
Lay a new foundation
I know You're not done with me yet
You got me drowning deep in Your ocean

Chorus

You've got me living, truly living

Chorus
