

Downhere, Raincoat

I'm looking for a friend to hold the door It's cold outside when I don't know where to find
A sheltered place secluded from the race
Of this old life

And as I walked out in the downpour with no raincoat
I was soaked down to the bone from head to toe Without my raincoat, anywhere I may go
I still get wet somehow
I found that friend,
He's with me till the end He's promised me that he won't forsake His own
And when a promise never ends
It can only mean one thing...
it's from above

Now I walk out in the downpour with my raincoat
And after all is said and done,
He's still the One
With my raincoat, anywhere I may go
I know I'm all right
