Downhere, Raincoat

I'm looking for a friend to hold the door It's cold outside when I don't know where to find A sheltered place secluded from the race Of this old life

And as I walked out in the downpour with no raincoat
I was soaked down to the bone from head to toe
Without my raincoat, anywhere I may go I still get wet somehow
I found that friend,
He's with me till the end
He's promised me that he won't forsake His own
And when a promise never ends
It can only mean one thing...
it's from above

Now I walk out in the downpour with my raincoat And after all is said and done, He's still the One With my raincoat, anywhere I may go I know I'm all right
