

Doyle Bramhall II & Smokestack, I Will Remember

I WILL REMEMBER

Seems like everyday were starting over
We go in out and in again
Some days are better than others
Just to get a taste
Of a woman with such grace
I will remember, fall down and you get back up again
I know this night seems like its gonna rain
Sometimes everything feels wrong
I feel it slipping and im holding
But for now its gonna be alright

Got my walking stick and my battlescars
Weve gone in and out and in again

This door has never been open before
Just to get a taste of a woman with such grace
I will remember, fall down and you get back up again
I know this night seems like its gonna rain
Sometimes everything feels wrong
I feel it slippin when im holding on
But for not Its gonna be alright
Guitar solo
I will remember, fall down and you get back up again
I know this night seems like its going to rain
Sometimes everything feels wrong
But for now its gonna be alright..
