

DQ, Still Standing

This is my truth
Theres no excuse for your actions
Fatal attraction
Im on my way but Im not afraid
From today Im on a journey
That Ive never been on before
And I know that Ill make it into my great unknown
I will be the one still standing
Even if I cry
I will smile and show the world that Im alive
I will give my all
And if I fall
I can rise without you darlin
I will be the one still standing
Im still standing after all
You were the one
You were the perfect illusion
lost in confusion
You know what changed
Im not ashamed
From today Im on a journey
That Ive never been on before
And I know that Ill make it into my great unknown
Chorus
You can never break me
I learned my lesson well from you
Defenses one too many
Made by over-do
Dont need another reason
To keep on walking away
I was caught in a game, and Im sorry to say
Wont look back again, so come what may
